WEEK 1

September 13th-19th

- Classes for Fall Term 2020 began on September 14th. A mix of both online and in-person classes with Carls both on and off campus, this fall will be one for the books!
- This year's keynote address of Opening Convocation was delivered by Stacy Abrams on the 14th. Her message highlighted the perseverance and capacity to effect change that young people are capable of today, especially through the power of voting.
- Volunteers were welcome to help restore the Arb by helping to collect prairie seeds for future replanting, all while socially distanced of course! The event took place on both the 16th and the 23rd!
- The Career Center hosted many events this week. Some highlights include Recruiter Resume Review Sessions, a Pre-Med/Pre-Health information session for First-Year Students, Virtual Interview workshops and more!

WEEK 2

September 20th-26th

- The Fall Recruiting Job and Internship Fair was held on Friday the 25th. Open to all Carleton students, the fair is designed to help connect students to opportunities with employers who recruit early in the fall semester, especially those interested in business, consulting, finance, actuarial science, data science, technology and healthcare!
- On Saturday the 26th, The Black Student-Athletes of Carleton organized No Mo' in NOFO: A March Against Police Brutality and Institutional Racism.
- The annual Involvement Fair was once again hosted by the Carleton Student Association (CSA) and the Student Activities Office (SAO) but this time on Zoom! First years and other interested students were able to pop on to different clubs' Zoom meetings and learn more about the various organizations on campus on the 26th.
- Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services were held over Zoom, on the 18th-20th and the 27th-28th respectively.
