

WEEK 4

NEWS YOU CAN USE

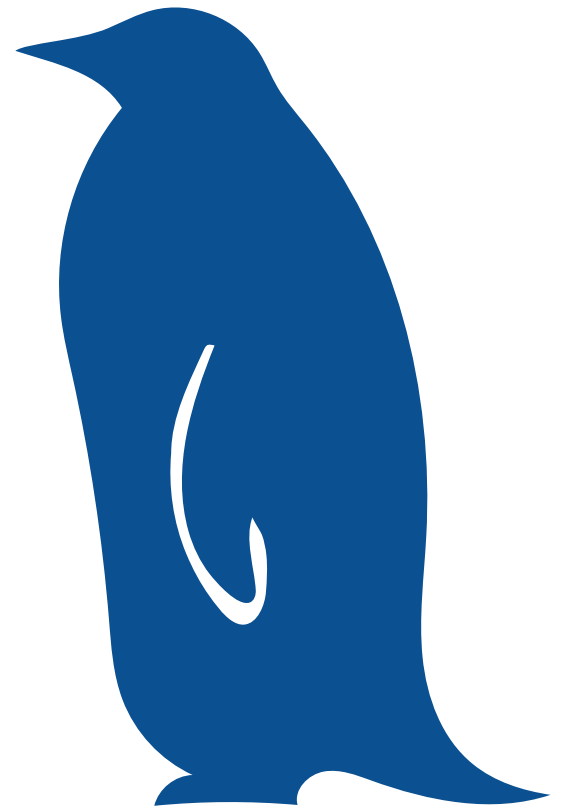

A CARLETON NEWSLETTER

WEEK 4

October 4th - October 10th

- To celebrate fall Burton Dining hall had a caramel apple bar from the 4th to the 5th!
- Sexual Misconduct Prevention and Response held Green Dot Bystander Intervention Training for students on the 6th. Over Zoom students learned how to safely and effectively intervene in instances of power-based personal violence.
- Volunteers continued to work in the arb by collecting seeds on the 7th!
- Carls in the Twin Cities hosted a Carleton Virtual Breakfast Club on the 8th. Gigi Dekko Goldman '81 talked about the We Share Solar Program, which teaches solar energy and social entrepreneurship to teachers and students.
- The GSC held a virtual Rainbow Retreat on the 10th. LGBTQIA+ students could engage in valuable reflection opportunities and community building with fellow LGBTQIA+ peers.
- Carleton Biology professors Dan Hernandez and Rou-Jia Sung hosted a virtual discussion on racial disparities in the impacts of climate change and pollution on the the 5th.
- Sophomorphosis continued this week! There were Zoom Q&A sessions on pre-health, focus 2 career, professional presentations, sophomore portfolios, off-campus studies, undergraduate research, and majors and minors.

Presented by the Student Ambassador Program