

WEEK 6

NEWS YOU CAN USE

A CARLETON NEWSLETTER

WEEK 6

October 18th - October 24th

- Students enjoyed a snowy Monday off for Midterm Break on the 19th.
- On the 20th Sexual Misconduct Prevention and Response held a virtual meeting about the new Title IX regulations. Students could learn about specific changes to Carleton's policy and procedure as a result of the new regulations.
- Pam Middleton held another First-Year Pre-Health information session on the 20th. Students who missed the meetings during September could use this chance to learn more about careers in medicine.
- Students donated meal swipes to support students facing meal insecurity on campus as part of Swipe Out Hunger. The program began on the 22nd and will run through the 28th.
- Students applying to medical school during 2021 could learn more about the process during an information session on the 22nd. Pam Middleton talked about what students could expect while applying, such as a general timeline for the year, the MCAT and the application process.
- The 2020 Adelante Conference was held on the 24th. Hosted by the Latinx Student Organization (LASO) at Harvard Business School, this year's theme was "EMERGE," focusing on Latinx resilience and progress towards a more prosperous future. Latinx students could attend this virtual event designed to bring together the Latinx community.
- TRIO Awareness Week began on the 21st. Students could learn more TRIO, decorate pumpkins, and attend panels on student's experiences at Carleton.

Presented by the Student Ambassador Program