WEEK 9

November 8th-14th

- The 8th was National First Generation Day. Teachers across campus used Zoom backgrounds provided by TRIO to celebrate first-generation students.
- Lenny Dee performed the virtual sketch comedy Better than Sitting in your Room all Alone on a Friday Night on the 13th. Students appreciated the chance to enjoy some fun before 10th week.
- On the 14th WOC+ held a self-care event over Zoom. Students were given face masks and green tea to help destress after 9th week.
- The Carleton Chinese Music Ensemble & Global Music Ensemble held a joint recital on the 14th. Featuring Top Awards Winners at the Chinese Bridge Global Music International Music Talent Video Competition, students could enjoy the fantastic performances virtually.
- On the night of the 12th a fire broke out in the historic Archer House Inn. Only a few minor injuries were sustained but the building was mostly destroyed. Residents mourned the loss of this defining building.

WEEK 10

November 15th-21st

- On the 17th the Gender and Sexuality Center held Queers, Cards, and Stars. Students could learn from TK Morton about astrology, tarot readings, and the relationship between queerness and/or transness, spirituality, and appropriation.
- The tradition of Late Night Breakfast continued in a different form this year. Students were excited to receive exam packs from the dining halls and Sayles Cafe on the 20th.
