

Summer Liberal Arts Institute (SLAI)

Humanities Teaching Assistant PD

Position Title: Teaching Assistant (TA) for the Carleton SLAI Humanities Program

Who Should Apply?

This position is open to current Carleton students in good standing with the College, including current seniors set to graduate in June 2023. The Humanities Program is a three-week residential summer institute that gives rising juniors and seniors (and a small number of rising sophomores) in high school a chance to experience college level work in humanities fields. The program offers guided research groups, and each TA will assist one guided research group for the duration of SLAI. TAs will assist faculty with class activities, field trips, and in the student research process, working closely with participants as they learn to frame research questions, identify appropriate sources, discuss project ideas, and provide supportive feedback as participants develop final projects individually or collaboratively.

Position Schedule and Benefits:

- This position will run from July 5th - 28th as an hourly student work position. Programs begin on July 9th and any work the week prior will be decided by your faculty Director.
- The hourly pay rate will be $12.00/hour.
- Due to the busy schedule of this position and the many different on-campus activities, Carleton room and board will be covered during your employment.
- The maximum weekly hours for this position will be 40, and the average hours will sit between 25-30.
- This is an in-person position, and most hours will fall between 8am - 5pm CST. Some evening and weekend work may be required, and the weekly time commitment will depend on the program faculty director.

Responsible to:

- One of the following: William North (program Director, History), Zaki Haidar (Arabic Culture and History), Jacqueline Lombard (Art History), Pierre Hecker (Literature and Drama)
- Allie Lyman, Assistant Director, Summer Liberal Arts Institute

Qualifications and Requirements:

This position is open to current Carleton students in good standing. Both academic and conduct checks will be done to verify good standing.

- Applicants must have an interest in working with high school rising juniors and seniors, and possess the ability to help and mentor the students.
- Applicants should model appropriate behavior and time management skills.
- Applicants should have the ability to both work collaboratively with and take direction from program faculty.

Desired Qualifications:

- A passion for Carleton's educational rigor and student life; interest in sharing personal experiences with pre-college students.
- Strong interest in or prior experience in leadership or mentor positions with Middle or High School students.
- Academic experience with at least one of the research topics being covered within the Program.
- Past experience at Camps, Pre-college programs, peer leader, peer academic support (e.g., language TA, Writing Assistant) or similar leadership roles at Carleton.

Responsibilities:

This position primarily supports the academic success of high school students participating in pre-college programs by directly assisting a SLAI faculty instructor and a cohort of participants within a specific program.

Job responsibilities may include, but are not limited to:

- Reading all the assigned student materials
- Serving as a source of academic information for program participants
- Checking daily attendance
- Maintaining office hours for program participant support
- Creating and implementing lesson plans
- Running small group discussions
- Helping students navigate Carleton's learning resources
- Helping students with in-lab projects and assignments
