Position Title: Teaching Assistant (TA) for the Carleton SLAI Storytelling Program

Who Should Apply?
This position is open to current Carleton students in good standing with the College, including current seniors set to graduate in June 2023. The Storytelling Program is a three-week residential summer institute that gives rising juniors and seniors (and a small number of rising sophomores) in high school a chance to experience college level work in interdisciplinary fields. The program offers a small group of students the opportunity to learn through 3 different storytelling lenses with three different Carleton faculty focused in Cognitive Psychology, American Studies & Creative Writing, and Film Music. Teaching Assistants will assist the entire student group for the duration of SLAI. TAs will assist faculty with class activities, working closely with participants as they learn to use stories to make sense of the world around us. Star Wars: A New Hope is offered as the common text woven throughout the program.

Position Schedule and Benefits:
- This position will run from July 5th - 28th as an hourly student work position. Programs begin on July 9th and any work the week prior will be decided by your faculty Director.
- The hourly pay rate will be $12.00/hour.
- Due to the busy schedule of this position and the many different on-campus activities, Carleton room and board will be covered during your employment.
- The maximum weekly hours for this position will be 40, and the average hours will sit between 25-30.
- This is an in-person position, and most hours will fall between 8am - 5pm CST. Some evening work may be required, and the weekly time commitment will depend on the program faculty director.

Responsible to:
- One of the following: Mija Van Der Wege (program Director, Cognitive Psychology), Adriana Estill (Screenwriting), Brooke McCorkle (Film Music)
- Allie Lyman, Assistant Director, Summer Liberal Arts Institute

Qualifications and Requirements:
This position is open to current Carleton students in good standing. Both academic and conduct reference/background checks will be done to verify good standing.
- Applicants must have an interest in working with high school rising juniors and seniors, and possess the ability to help and mentor the students.
- Applicants should model appropriate behavior and time management skills.
- Applicants should have the ability to both work collaboratively with and take direction from program faculty.

Desired Qualifications:
- Prior experience in leadership or mentor positions with Middle or High School students.
- Experience with at least one of the research topics being covered within the Institute.
- A passion for Carleton’s educational rigor and student life; interest in sharing personal experiences with pre-college students.
Past experience at Camps, Pre-college programs, or similar leadership roles at Carleton.
