NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL AWARDS AND HONORS

CHURCHILL SCHOLARSHIP

Jahmaine Renzo Ocampo Yambing

Churchill Scholarships provide exceptional students from the United States who demonstrate a capacity to contribute to the advancement of knowledge in the sciences, engineering, or mathematics with the opportunity to study for one year at the University of Cambridge, England. At least fourteen Churchill Scholarships are offered annually.

CRITICAL LANGUAGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Maxwell Timothy Gjertson
Marianne Gunnarsson
Lila Tari Stolkiner

The CLS Program, part of a U.S. government effort to expand dramatically the number of Americans studying and mastering critical foreign languages, provides fully-funded group-based intensive language instruction and structured cultural enrichment experiences for seven to ten weeks for U.S. citizen undergraduate and graduate students.
DAVIS PROJECTS FOR PEACE

Georgette Mukeshimana

The Davis Projects for Peace Initiative allows students at schools associated with the Davis United World College Scholars Program to design and implement their own grassroots “projects for peace.” The initiative was established in 2007 by Kathryn Wasserman Davis in commemoration of her 100th birthday. Davis was a lifelong internationalist and philanthropist and the mother of Davis United World College Scholars Program namesake Shelby M.C. Davis.

FULBRIGHT FELLOWSHIP

William Wilder Bausch
Ella Anne Milliken
Thomas William White

The Fulbright U.S. Student Program awards fellowships to college seniors and recent graduates to pursue independent research, graduate study, or English teaching in over 160 different countries around the world. Funded jointly by the U.S. Department of State and host countries, it is the world’s largest educational and cultural exchange program.
MINNESOTA SPACE GRANT CONSORTIUM AWARD

Ruairi B. Brown
Maeva Menjiengwe Tchouaffe
Josiah Jacob Tusler

The Minnesota Space Grant Consortium is part of the NASA Funded National Space Grant College and Fellowship Program established by Congress in 1988. The Consortium provides state-based, pre-college education, higher educational research opportunities for faculty and students, and public service activities related to aerospace science and engineering in order to further aerospace education in Minnesota.

DONALD G. PATERSON AWARD IN PSYCHOLOGY

Maya Geneva Rogers

This award is made to an outstanding senior undergraduate psychology major in Minnesota. The award is given in the name of Professor Donald G. Paterson, a major figure in the development of the Department of Psychology at the University of Minnesota.

THOMAS J. WATSON FELLOWSHIP

Yuanhao Zou

Established in 1968 to enable college graduates of unusual promise to engage in a postgraduate year of independent study and travel abroad, the fellowship is administered in cooperation with 50 outstanding private colleges and universities throughout the United States. Selection of fellows is based on such qualities as integrity, imagination, strong ethical character, intelligence, capacity of leadership, potential for creative achievement, excellence within a chosen field, and humane and effective participation in the world community. The participating institutions submit nominations to the foundation, and after careful review of the qualities of the candidates and their proposed project, a maximum of 50 Watson Fellows are named each year.
CARLETON AWARDS, HONORS, AND PRIZES

SARAH F. HAMM-ALVAREZ ’86 AND R. MICHAEL ALVAREZ ’86 AWARD FOR APPLIED RESEARCH

Madison P. Collins

The Sarah F. Hamm-Alvarez ’86 and R. Michael Alvarez ’86 Fund for Applied Research was established in 2014 to support research efforts of students who are working to bring innovations and concepts from theory or laboratory to the real-world. Research projects from the natural or social sciences that help propel conceptual or theoretical results into practical applications or which develop methodologies to test or evaluate the efficacy of these applications will be recognized with an award. In 2017, this fund was expanded to encourage the student award recipient to travel to gather data, prepare, and refine the project for presentation at a professional conference. The funding may also support additional research on the applied project as part of an internship or student-faculty research project.

CAROLYN APPLEBAUM PRIZE IN THE ARTS

McKenna A. Wirth

The Carolyn Applebaum Prize in the Arts was established in 2014 by Dr. Mark S. Applebaum ’89 and Ms. Joan Friedman in memory of Carolyn Applebaum, Mark’s sister. Carolyn was devoted to theater and worked as a drama teacher. She was an advocate, cheerleader, mentor, and friend to her students. The prize recognizes students who have made a meaningful impact on the arts in student life.
JAMES S. BERGLUND ’61 SOCIAL SCIENCE PRIZE

Ooi Win Wen

Established in memory of James S. Berglund ’61 by his friends and classmates, this prize is awarded for the best essay or research paper in the social sciences.

SCOTT TYLER BERGNER PRIZE

Zhonghui Du
Mohammed Mehdi Shahid
Elliot Nikolaus Stork

This prize recognizes members of the senior class who have outstanding academic records and who have demonstrated excellence of thought and character. This prize was established in 1978 to honor the memory of Scott Tyler Bergner, son of Jeffrey T. Bergner ’69 and Susan D. Bergner ’69.

CLASS OF 1885 PRIZE

Skye Hikari Gulledge

Judged by members of the English department, this prize is awarded annually to the Carleton students who submit the best work of imagination in prose.
CLASS OF 1966 DIVERSITY OF ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Clarissa Guzman
Maya Geneva Rogers
Mohammed Mehdi Shahid

The Class of 1966 Diversity of Achievement Award is given to Carleton students who have made a unique or distinctive contribution to the College or the community. The recipients have demonstrated excellence in their own way in such diverse areas as the arts, community service, student government, academic research, or other areas of contribution.

MARGARET DALTON CURRAN PRIZE

Samuel Wingfield

Established in 1986 by family and friends of Margaret Dalton Curran ’26, this prize recognizes Curran’s lifelong interest in excellent writing, which she developed at Carleton. It is awarded annually by the English department faculty to students submitting the most accomplished academic essay.

DANA AWARD FOR PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENT

Arlo Cohn Hettle
Michael Korte Walsh

Established in memory of the Reverend Malcolm McGregor Dana, who was a Carleton trustee from 1878 to 1888, this award is given to young men in the senior class who during four years at Carleton have achieved a balance of high scholarship, exceptional leadership abilities, and outstanding Christian character. The award is made in the hope that these qualities will be dedicated to public service.
DIMSDALE PRIZE FOR UNDERGRADUATE MEDICAL RESEARCH

Annabella Rose Strathman

The Dimsdale Prize is awarded to students with outstanding academic achievement who are interested in pursuing a career in medicine. The prize, which is awarded to students having completed at least their sophomore year, supports off-campus research or other experiences that would help prepare students for medical school.

MIKE EWERS AWARD FROM THE MINNESOTA SPACE GRANT CONSORTIUM

Mia Linder David
Ian Andrew Wojtowicz

Established in 2008 in memory of Colin Michael “Mike” Ewers who drowned in the Tanama River near Puerto Rico in 2003 while on a research trip to the Arecibo Radio Observatory. He would have graduated with the Class of 2004. This prize is awarded to junior or senior students involved in space-related research who best exemplify Mike’s vision for the exploration of space and his enthusiasm for public outreach.

DAVID JOHN FIELD PRIZE

Rebecca Marie Matouschek Hicke
James Evan McGehee
Alexis Elizabeth Walters

This prize is awarded each year to members of the senior class whose nonathletic activities best exhibit the qualities of imagination, ingenuity, energy, verve, and zest for life that David Field ’64 exemplified while living joyfully with his fellow students.
LAURENCE MCKINLEY GOULD PRIZE IN NATURAL SCIENCE

Rebecca Marie Matouschek Hicke
Ayaka Moriyama
Jed Daniel Villanueva

This prize was established in 1979 to recognize the accomplishments made to science research and to liberal education by Laurence McKinley Gould, who served as Carleton’s president from 1945 to 1962. The prize is awarded annually to members of the senior class who have demonstrated excellence in experimental scientific research either in biology, chemistry, geology, physics, or psychology and who have studied one of the other humanities at a level well beyond the minimum college requirements.

JEFFERSON NATURAL SCIENCES TEACHING AWARD

Stuart Donald Kraabel
Katherine Rose Oda

Given annually to current students who have demonstrated an interest in and capacity for teaching children or adults in the natural sciences, this award is named in honor of Constance Jefferson Sansome ’68 and her family, many of whom are or have been extraordinary teachers of the natural sciences. The award may be used for any purpose that furthers the student’s teaching career.
SIGRID AND ERLING LARSEN AWARD IN CREATIVE AND PERFORMING ARTS

Ayaka Moriyama
Octavia Alina Washington

This award honors the memory of Sigrid Larsen ’61 and her father, Erling Larsen, professor of English at Carleton from 1956 to 1974. It is made annually to students who, either as creators or performers, have done the most memorable or distinguished work in literature, music, drama, art, dance, photography, or film.

HYME LOSS AWARD FOR GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT

Anna Elizabeth Gwin
Santiago Andres Rico
Rebecca Jane Shapiro
Elliot Nikolaus Stork
Lea Gates Winston
Yuanhao Zou

The award was established in 2019 to honor Professor Hyme Loss, who joined the Carleton faculty in 1926 and brought experience and expertise to the foreign languages at Carleton. His studies included time in France—this in an era when languages were typically taught for reading knowledge by professors with little experience abroad—and he was fluent in French, Spanish, Italian, Hebrew, Yiddish, Latin, and Greek. The Hyme Loss Award for Global Engagement is given to seniors who demonstrate excellence beyond the existing Global Citizenship graduation requirement. It encourages students to go deeper in their foreign language acquisition, cultural immersion, global perspective-taking, and cross-cultural learning.
DAVID MAITLAND - ROBERT WILL PRIZE

Grace D. Bassekle
Valentina Guerrero Chala

This prize honors Professor David J. Maitland and Professor Robert E. Will ’50, and recognizes qualities important in defining a Carleton education - in this instance, involvement in one’s community. It is awarded to students who are completing their sophomore year and have shown the greatest capacity for transforming their community through service.

MORTAR BOARD PRIZE

Esther G. Ingram
Ntense Benjamin Obono

The Mortar Board Prize, established by its members, is awarded each year for the purchase of books to a member or members of the previous first-year class who are outstanding in fields of leadership, scholarship, and service.

DACIE MOSES AWARD

Alexander Parnell Harrison

Established by the Alumni Association to celebrate the warmth, generosity, and hospitality of Candace K. “Dacie” Moses, who contributed so much to the lives of Carleton students, this award is given each year to the senior or seniors who most exemplify the characteristics of Dacie Moses.
NOYES PRIZE

Zhonghui Du

The Noyes Prize was founded in 1908 by Daniel R. Noyes of St. Paul. Distinguished scholars are selected from a list of eligible members of the senior class based on grade point average.

THE REEVE PRIZE

Adam David Smart

The Reeve Prize was established in 1881 in memory of Minnie A. Reeve of Minneapolis. Distinguished scholars are selected from a list of eligible members of the senior class based on grade point average.

JEAN SCHMIDT PRIZE

Yuchen Dai

Established in 1973 in memory of Jean Schmidt ’73, the prize is awarded each year to members of the graduating class who best exemplify Schmidt’s enthusiasm for learning and love of people.

SECOND CENTURY STUDENT AWARD

Audrey Gao
Imani Soul Kindness-Coleman
Jevon Emanuel Robinson
Maya Geneva Rogers

This award was established to honor Carleton students who have made an outstanding contribution to the College through significant service to others. The award is not intended to recognize academic or political success, but rather to honor service on or off campus that enriches and strengthens the institution and the lives of its members.
HARRIET SHERIDAN ENDOWED PRIZE

Helena Lee
Mikhalina Solakhava

This prize was established in honor of Harriet Sheridan, former acting president, dean, and professor of English, who had a major impact on the donors of this fund. The purpose of the prize is to recognize qualities that are important in defining a Carleton education—in this instance, writing ability.

STEWSIE SUSTAINABILITY AWARD

Rebecca Abigail Hyman Horwitz

The Stewsie Sustainability Award is given to Carleton students whose characters reflect the determination, conviction, and innovation of the lifelong service of Dresden Blake Stewart, better known as “Stewsie.” Concluding a varied career as superintendent of grounds, Stewsie served the College for more than 50 years, eventually receiving the title “landscape architect.” Never found without a shovel in hand, he was dedicated to improving his community’s environment and keeping strong his deep convictions about preserving the natural order of the local habitat.

STIMSON PRIZE

Delina Fre-Bereket Haileab

This prize was founded in 1873 by Carleton Trustee Reverend Henry A. Stimson to encourage public speech. It is awarded to students who contribute most to the quality of debate or public speaking at the College.
FRANK E. STINCHFIELD PRIZE

Charlotte Clarity Zinda

This prize is named for Dr. Frank E. Stinchfield ’32, H ’60. It was established at his request, but after his death, through the Margaret and Frank Stinchfield Foundation. The prize is awarded to academically outstanding members of the senior class.

SAMUEL STRAUSS PRIZE FOR HUMOROUS WRITING

Phoebe Rose Ward

Endowed in 1982 by Robert S. Strauss ’73 in memory of his father, this prize is awarded to recognize accomplished humorous writing.

TECHNOS INTERNATIONAL PRIZE

Ooi Win Wen

Presented to a graduating senior for outstanding academic achievement and a commitment to furthering the cause of international understanding, this award is balanced by a similar award given by Carleton to a student at Technos College in Tokyo.
CARLETON TONI AWARD IN THE ARTS

Michael M. Albrecht
Grace Evalyn Hague
Robert William Josowitz
Ayaka Moriyama
Octavia Alina Washington

This prize, established in 1996 in honor of Antoinette (Toni) Sostek, dance instructor at Carleton from 1971 to 1996, is awarded to juniors or seniors who embody the spirit of Sostek’s teachings through artistic expression. The following attributes summarize the people with that spirit: finds the fun in shared experience, understands that major challenges are overcome through small steps and small triumphs, exults in the joy of personal achievement, and does not let personal limitations or conventional wisdom discourage creative expression.

MARY WIESE ENDOWED PRIZE

Clarissa Guzman
Ana Leticia Pina Marcelino

Established in 1992 to honor the memory of Carleton employee and parent Maria “Mary” Eugenia Wiese, this prize honors Wiese’s respect for education, her profound love for students, and her understanding of the place of education in their futures. Qualities Wiese valued in others and that formed the core of her own character were cultural pride, kindness, perseverance, self-reliance, discipline, and respect and care for other people. This prize is awarded to graduating seniors who embody the above qualities and who have demonstrated perseverance in overcoming challenging circumstances. To honor the pride Wiese had in her Latino culture, preference is given to Latino students.
DEPARTMENTAL AND PROGRAM AWARDS, HONORS, AND PRIZES

RAJALETCHEMY BALASINGAM GENDER, WOMEN’S & SEXUALITY STUDIES

Lauren Claire Carothers-Liske

The Rajaletchemy Balasingam Gender, Women's & Sexuality Studies Prize was established in 2018 by Dashini Jeyathurai ’08 to honor the best academic writing in the Gender, Women’s & Sexuality Studies Program. She named the prize after the first feminist in her life, her mother Rajaletchemy Balasingam. The prize recognizes a student in a Gender, Women’s & Sexuality Studies course that submits a superlative piece of academic writing.

JOHN K. BARE PRIZE IN PSYCHOLOGY

Rachel E. Block
Maya Geneva Rogers

Established in 1983, this prize was created to honor Professor John Bare for his many contributions to his students, to Carleton’s Department of Psychology, and to teaching in American psychology more generally. The prize, endowed by his students, colleagues, friends, and family, is awarded to members of the senior class who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in the study of psychology.
WARREN L. BESON MEMORIAL AWARD

Alexander Battist
Stephen Carl Lavey

Awarded for athletic and academic excellence to seniors who have achieved one or more accolades in any sport and have a high scholastic average, this award was established in memory of former Carleton football coach, Warren L. Beson.

CHARLES CARLIN PRIZE IN CHEMISTRY

Annabella Rose Strathman

This prize was established in 2011 by Charles H. Carlin, Charles “Jim” and Marjorie Kade Professor of the Sciences, Emeritus. The prize honors senior chemistry majors whose enjoyment of chemistry and gracious good humor has inspired and assisted others in the field.

MIKE CASPER AWARD

Isabel Eleanor Stack

The Barry M. “Mike” Casper Award was established in 2011 by the environmental studies (ENTS) program to honor the memory of Mike Casper, professor of physics from 1966 to 2003 and long-time cornerstone of the environmental studies program at Carleton. This prize honors the graduating ENTS majors who best personify Professor Casper’s commitment to superior academic achievement and his energy and leadership in support of understanding and protecting the environment.
ROY O. ELVETON PRIZE IN COGNITIVE SCIENCE AND PHILOSOPHY

Kanishk Singh
Jed Daniel Villanueva

The prize was established in 2014 in commemoration of the retirement of Roy Elveton, the Maxine H. and Winston R. Wallin Professor of Philosophy and Cognitive Science, Emeritus. Roy joined the faculty in 1968 and was instrumental in founding the interdisciplinary program in cognitive science at Carleton. The Roy Elveton Prize honors two senior students a year: the cognitive science student and philosophy student judged to excel in their senior integrative exercise (comps).

JAMES FINHOLT PRIZE IN INORGANIC CHEMISTRY

David Garrett Wilson

This prize was established by friends and colleagues in honor of the 42 years of service of professor James E. Finholt to the chemistry department at Carleton. The prize is awarded each year to graduating seniors who excelled in the study of inorganic chemistry and who share the type of enthusiasm and love of the molecular world exhibited by Professor Finholt.
WINFIELD A. FOREMAN JR. ’37 ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE IN ECONOMICS

Maya Elise Donovan

This scholarship was created in 2005 by Mr. Foreman’s wife, Alice, in honor of her husband’s 90th birthday. Winfield A. Foreman Jr. graduated summa cum laude from Carleton in 1937 with a degree in economics. He became involved in a number of business enterprises including Foreman & Clark, a clothing company founded by his father, and later became vice president at John Wanamaker, a department store in Philadelphia. During WWII, Mr. Foreman served in the Navy and ended his military career as a Lieutenant Senior Grade. The Winfield A. Foreman Jr. ’37 Endowed Scholarship for Academic Excellence is awarded to economics majors who are U.S. citizens and demonstrate great academic promise. The scholarship encourages students to pursue community-inspired business and service, as modeled by Winfield A. Foreman Jr.

STEVEN P. GALOVICH PRIZE IN MATHEMATICS

Bryan Young-Min Elhard Boehnke
Sawyer Bryn Buhman

This prize was established in 2009 by the generosity of alumni and friends to honor the memory of Steve Galovich, professor of mathematics from 1974 to 1994. The prize honors graduating mathematics majors who best reflect Professor Galovich’s enthusiasm for and love of mathematics, zestful joy in life, sense of humor, and compassion for others.
TALIA GOLDENBERG ’12 AWARD IN STUDIO ART

Michael M. Albrecht
Maia Hailey Danks

This award was established in 2014 to honor the memory of Talia Goldenberg ’12. Talia exhibited delight in the world, compassion for others, and courage and tenacity in facing life’s challenges. This award recognizes senior studio art majors receiving distinction on their comprehensive exercise who also have extraordinary promise and embody Talia’s spirit of community and humaneness. Selections are made by the art department.

ELE HANSEN AWARD

Madison P. Collins
Sydney Anne Marsh
Ananya Anand Shah

This award is given annually to senior female students who bring to sport the joy of participation and who have positively influenced others through their example, service, and leadership in the athletic or recreation program. This award also publicly honors Professor Eleanor Hansen, chair of the women’s physical education department from 1952 to 1986, in appreciation for the generosity, enthusiasm, and warmth she shared with generations of Carleton students. It is endowed by a fund created by her friends, colleagues, and former students at the time of her retirement in 1986.

ADA M. HARRISON PRIZE IN ECONOMICS

Paul C. Hinton
Mitchell Wang

This prize recognizes the outstanding academic achievements of graduating economics majors for coursework and independent study in the field of economics at Carleton. It publicly honors Professor Ada M. Harrison and was established in 1978 by her former students, friends, and colleagues at the time of her retirement from 30 years of distinguished service to Carleton.
HONORS IN MUSIC PERFORMANCE

Ruken Bastimar
Ava Pauline Chisholm
Carly Lo
Adam David Smart
Hisui Takeda
Yucheng Yang

This award celebrates music students, both majors and nonmajors, for excellence in performance and significant contributions as performers.

HUNTINGTON POETRY PRIZE

Marianne Gunnarsson

Endowed in memory of George Huntington, poet, novelist, and professor of logic, rhetoric, and elocution at Carleton from 1879 to 1906, this prize recognizes distinguished work in poetry.

IAN KRAABEL MEMORIAL PRIZE

Oliver Hume Jacobs

Established in 1987 by the classmates and friends of Ian Kraabel '85, who died in an avalanche on Mount Baker in the summer of 1986, this award honors Kraabel's unusual intensity, originality, and athletic ability. The prize is awarded each year by the history department to a major who best reflects Kraabel’s personal qualities and his desire to pursue knowledge and understanding.
PAT LAMB AWARD

Kapani C. Kirkland
Kristin Akemi Miyagi

This award is given to outstanding senior female athletes who have achieved athletic excellence and a high level of academic achievement. Awards are given for both team sports and individual sports. The award publicly honors Pat Lamb, Carleton’s first director of women’s athletics from 1970-1985. Professor Lamb was an influential leader in the early development of increased opportunities for women not only at Carleton, but also at state, regional, and national levels. This award is endowed by a fund created by colleagues, former students, and friends upon Lamb’s retirement in 1994.

JERRY MOHRIG PRIZE IN CHEMISTRY

Alison Block

This prize was established in 2006 by friends and students of Jerry R. Mohrig, professor of chemistry from 1967 to 2003, in honor of his many contributions to Carleton. The award recognizes outstanding senior chemistry majors who have excelled in the study of chemistry and undergraduate scientific research. The award recognizes two hallmarks of excellence: achievement in formal academic coursework and success in a significant research experience.

WILLIAM MUIR SCHOLARS

Kaylin Eliza Engerman

This fund was established in 1985 to support the biology department. The fund provides a stipend for outstanding juniors interested in plant sciences.
EDWARD “TED” MULLIN MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP IN HISTORY

Christopher John Costello
Dane Ward Swanser

The Edward “Ted” Mullin Fellowship in History was established in memory of Ted, who lost his life to cancer in September 2006 while he was a student at Carleton. The fellowship is awarded to junior history majors to support research opportunities in the field of history that enhance a student’s academic or broader learning journey. The fellowship recipients, selected by the history department, exemplify Ted’s love of history, academic excellence, selflessness, courage, and tenacity.

JONATHAN PARADISE ISRAEL EXPERIENCE FUND

Michaela Hannah Strubel Iram

This fund was established by Mansoor Alyeshmerni, Carleton’s Hebrew instructor for many years, to honor his teacher Professor Jonathan Paradise. Its purpose is to provide financial support to Carleton students who wish to learn more about the culture, history, and politics of Israel in order to better understand the global community in which we live. Students must study abroad in Israel in a structured educational program, which need not be through a university.
DAVID POLLATSEK ’96 PRIZE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

William Cullen Beddow
Oliver Abernathy Calder
Isabelle Olivia Clawson
Rebecca Marie Matouschek Hicke
Jade Kandel
Yemi Shin
Piper Rayne Welch
Yeng Heng Zhang Yang

This prize, established in 2013 by family and friends of David Pollatsek ’96, is awarded each year to computer science majors who best reflect David’s special strengths: his intellectual curiosity, his creativity, his imaginative programming, his love of art, and his flair for design.

RACHEL ROSENFELD PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY

Samantha Patricia Vera Leyva

This prize was established in 2011 in memory of Rachel A. Rosenfeld ’70, professor of sociology at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. The prize is awarded each spring by the Department of Sociology and Anthropology to seniors who exhibit the most promise in making professional contributions in the areas of sociology or anthropology, a high level of intellectual curiosity, courage in the face of challenges, devotion to community, and enthusiasm for making connections between social theory and practice.
SY SCHUSTER PRIZE FOR LEADERSHIP IN DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Mika Cooney
Ana Leticia Pina Marcelino

Established in 2021, this prize honors Sy Schuster, William H. Laird Professor of Mathematics and the Liberal Arts, Emeritus, by recognizing students whose leadership works to help Carleton’s mathematics and statistics community reflect the broad diversity of all people. This award will go to one or more students who show leadership promoting diversity along racial, ethnic, disability, religious, sexual orientation, gender, socio-economic, and all its other dimensions.

LEE SIGELMAN PRIZE

Hana Mensendieck

The Lee Sigelman Prize honors Professor of Political Science Lee Sigelman, who graduated from Carleton College in 1967 and served as the editor-in-chief of the American Political Science Review from 2001-2007. The prize recognizes the best paper written by a junior political science major.

BARDWELL SMITH PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN THE STUDY OF RELIGION

Narayan Thijm

Established in 2006 on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of Carleton’s religion department, this prize celebrates the leadership and career of Bardwell L. Smith, the John W. Nason Professor of Religion and Asian Studies, Emeritus. The award honors Professor Smith’s intellectual legacy of cross-cultural study and commitment to lifelong learning. The prize is awarded by the religion department to students who exhibit a passion for the life of the mind, a willingness to take intellectual risks, and a desire to grow and change as young scholars.
ELLEN ROGERS STEIF MEMORIAL AWARD

Michael Lyle Schultz

Established by the family and friends of Ellen Steif ’77, who died in the fall of 1979, this award honors Steif’s interest in history and her personal courage in the face of death during a long and painful illness. The prize is awarded each year by the history department to history majors who best reflect Steif’s personal qualities and academic achievements.

DUNCAN STEWART FELLOWS

We stand on the homelands of the Wahpekute and other bands of the Dakota Nation. We honor with gratitude the people who have stewarded the land throughout the generations and their ongoing contributions to this region. We acknowledge the ongoing injustices that we have committed against the Dakota Nation, and we wish to interrupt this legacy, beginning with acts of healing and honest storytelling.
