THE ALMA MATER

“Carleton, Our Alma Mater”

Air “Officer of the Day” by R.B. Hall please stand if you are able

CARLETON, OUR ALMA MATER

O Carle - ton, our Al - ma Ma - ter, We hail the maize and blue; Thy name is e - ver dear - est, Thy chil - dren e - ver true. O Carle - ton, our Al - ma Ma - ter, To thee we sing our praise; For thee we fight, To thee we pledge the strength of all our days.

The musical score is written on four staves in a single system. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, with some measures containing rests. The lyrics are aligned with the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line on the final note of the fourth staff.

AIMEE JADE YUAN

The Fulbright U.S. Student Program awards fellowships to college seniors and recent graduates to pursue independent research, graduate study, or English teaching in over 160 different countries around the world. Funded jointly by the U.S. Department of State and host countries, it is the world's largest educational and cultural exchange program.

FULBRIGHT MITACS-GLOBALINK

SIMON CHAMBERS-TRUBATCH

WILLIAM JOHN LANKENAU

Fulbright Canada's MITACS-Globalink program is a highly competitive opportunity that supports student participation in advanced research projects at Canadian universities.

BARRY M. GOLDWATER SCHOLARSHIP

AMIR SAKURA ETEMADI

SAMUEL REN-JIE REITER

The Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship and Excellence in Education Program was established by Congress in 1986 to honor former U.S. Senator Barry Goldwater. The scholarship is awarded competitively to highly qualified sophomores or juniors who demonstrate outstanding potential for academic study and research in mathematics, the natural sciences, or engineering.

PROJECTS FOR PEACE

OSTAP HREBENIUK

RODRIGO VALENTÍN MONTENEGRO ALBORNOZ

The Projects for Peace initiative allows students at schools associated with the Davis United World College Scholars Program to design and implement their own grassroots "projects for peace." The initiative was established in 2007 by Kathryn Wasserman Davis in commemoration of her 100th birthday. Wasserman Davis was a lifelong internationalist and philanthropist and the mother of Davis United World College Scholars Program namesake Shelby M.C. Davis.

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP

TRINITY NATALIA HANIF

Rotary Foundation Global Grant Fellowships are used to fund graduate-level studies abroad related to one of the seven Rotary areas of focus, as well as sustainable, measurable, and needs-based community service projects to be completed during the scholarship period.

THOMAS J. WATSON FELLOWSHIP

FLORENCE ISABELLA BASILE

HENRY WILLIAM BURKHARDT

Established in 1968 to enable college graduates of unusual promise to engage in a postgraduate year of independent study and travel abroad, the fellowship is administered in cooperation with 50 outstanding private colleges and universities throughout the United States. Selection of fellows is based on such qualities as integrity, imagination, strong ethical character, intelligence, capacity of leadership, potential for creative achievement, excellence within a chosen field, and humane and effective participation in the world community. The participating institutions submit nominations to the foundation, and after careful review of the qualities of the candidates and their proposed project, a maximum of 50 Watson Fellows are named each year.

CARLETON AWARDS, HONORS, AND PRIZES

SARAH F. HAMM-ALVAREZ '86 AND R. MICHAEL ALVAREZ '86 AWARD FOR APPLIED RESEARCH

MARGARET YU-TONG HU

The Sarah F. Hamm-Alvarez '86 and R. Michael Alvarez '86 Fund for Applied Research was established in 2014 to support research efforts of students who are working to bring innovations and concepts from theory or laboratory to the real world. Research projects from the natural or social sciences that help propel conceptual or theoretical results into practical applications or which develop methodologies to test or evaluate the efficacy of these applications will be recognized with an award. In 2017, this fund was expanded to encourage the student award recipient to travel to gather data, prepare, and refine the project for presentation at a professional conference. The funding may also support additional research on the applied project as part of an internship or student-faculty research project.

CAROLYN APPLEBAUM PRIZE IN THE ARTS

ADIANA ELENA CONTRERAS

The Carolyn Applebaum Prize in the Arts was established in 2014 by Dr. Mark S. Applebaum '89 and Ms. Joan Friedman in memory of Carolyn Applebaum, Mark's sister. Carolyn was devoted to theater and worked as a drama teacher. She was an advocate, cheerleader, mentor, and friend to her students. The prize recognizes students who have made a meaningful impact on the arts in student life.

JAMES S. BERGLUND '61 SOCIAL SCIENCE PRIZE

NARJIS NUSAIBAH

Established in memory of James S. Berglund '61 by his friends and classmates, this prize is awarded for the best essay or research paper in the social sciences.

SCOTT TYLER BERGNER PRIZE

JOELLA KATHERINE SHEARER

IRIS OLWEN STEINER-MANNING

This prize recognizes members of the senior class who have outstanding academic records and who have demonstrated excellence of thought and character. This prize was established in 1978 to honor the memory of Scott Tyler Bergner, son of Jeffrey T. Bergner '69 and Susan D. Bergner '69.

ERIC '66 AND MIMI '66 CARLSON PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN COMMUNITY COLLABORATION

AMBAR GALAVIZ NAVARRETE

Established in 2024 in honor of Eric '66 and Mimi '66 Carlson P '97, this award recognizes an individual or group of students (sophomore or above) for being highly effective contributors to a community engagement or civic engagement collaboration during their time at Carleton. Other awards exist to celebrate extraordinary individuals and their leadership; however, this award is focused on excellence in collaboration. Awardees need not be well-known or high profile. They must be thoughtful, dedicated, valued contributors to a shared effort that addresses a social issue. Good candidates for this award exemplify the six tenets of community/institution collaboration: trust, shared power, shared knowledge, mutual respect, mutual benefit, and reflection.

CLASS OF 1885

LYDIA HINKLE McCAMANT

Judged by members of the English department, this prize is awarded annually to the Carleton student who submits the best work of imagination in prose.

CLASS OF 1966 DIVERSITY OF ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

FRANCISCO ARENAS

ELIANA LUCIA SIMON

ABDUL RAHIM HAMID

CLAUDETTE VALENCIA

OLIVIA MARIE NICOL

The Class of 1966 Diversity of Achievement Award is given to Carleton students who have made a unique or distinctive contribution to the College or the community. The recipients have demonstrated excellence in their own way in such diverse areas as the arts, community service, student government, academic research, or other areas of contribution.

MARGARET DALTON CURRAN '26 PRIZE

WINSTON PACHECO INGALLS

PARKER SCOTT JOHNSON

Established in 1986 by family and friends of Margaret Dalton Curran '26, this prize recognizes Curran's lifelong interest in excellent writing, which she developed at Carleton. It is awarded annually by the English department faculty to students submitting the most accomplished academic essays.

DANA AWARD FOR PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENT

CHANCE MICHAEL TUNNISSEN

Established in memory of the Reverend Malcolm McGregor Dana, who was a Carleton trustee from 1878 to 1888, this award is given to young men in the senior class who during four years at Carleton have achieved a balance of high scholarship, exceptional leadership abilities, and outstanding Christian character. The award is made in the hope that these qualities will be dedicated to public service.

DAVID JOHN FIELD PRIZE

EILA G. PLANINC

NIA GRACE TERRY

This prize is awarded each year to members of the senior class whose nonathletic activities best exhibit the qualities of imagination, ingenuity, energy, verve, and zest for life that David Field '64 exemplified while living joyfully with his fellow students.

LAURENCE MCKINLEY GOULD PRIZE IN NATURAL SCIENCE

MAX KINGSTON

BRADY RIVKIN

SAMUEL JOSEPH TORCH ULLMAN

This prize was established in 1979 to recognize the accomplishments made to science research and to liberal education by Laurence McKinley Gould, who served as Carleton's president from 1945 to 1962. The prize is awarded annually to members of the senior class who have demonstrated excellence in experimental scientific research either in biology, chemistry, geology, physics, or psychology and who have studied one of the other humanities at a level well beyond the minimum College requirements.

JEFFERSON NATURAL SCIENCES TEACHING AWARD

SAMUEL JOSEPH TORCH ULLMAN

Given annually to current students who have demonstrated an interest in and capacity for teaching children or adults in the natural sciences, this award is named in honor of Constance Jefferson Sansome '68 and her family, many of whom are or have been extraordinary teachers of the natural sciences. The award may be used for any purpose that furthers the student's teaching career.

SIGRID AND ERLING LARSEN AWARD IN CREATIVE AND PERFORMING ARTS

NATIV EREZ BERKOVITZ-RAVE

RYAN MATTHEW BERNSTEIN

MAX KINGSTON

This award honors the memory of Sigrid Larsen '61 and her father, Erling Larsen, professor of English at Carleton from 1956 to 1974. It is made annually to students who, either as creators or performers, have done the most memorable or distinguished work in literature, music, drama, art, dance, photography, or film.

HYME LOSS AWARD FOR GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT

DANIEL DOUGLAS MCGOVERN

The award was established in 2019 to honor Professor Hyme Loss, who joined the Carleton faculty in 1926 and brought experience and expertise to the foreign languages at Carleton. His studies included time in France—this in an era when languages were typically taught for reading knowledge by professors with little experience abroad—and he was fluent in French, Spanish, Italian, Hebrew, Yiddish, Latin, and Greek. The Hyme Loss Award for Global Engagement is given to seniors who demonstrate excellence beyond the existing Global Citizenship graduation requirement. It encourages students to go deeper in their foreign language acquisition, cultural immersion, global perspective-taking, and cross-cultural learning.

MORTAR BOARD PRIZE

LILLIAN COLETTE HUGHES

SEONWOO JEONG

The Mortar Board Prize, established by its members, is awarded each year for the purchase of books to a member or members of the previous first-year class who are outstanding in fields of leadership, scholarship, and service.

DACIE MOSES AWARD

ANNE MAREN WIENER

Established by the Alumni Association to celebrate the warmth, generosity, and hospitality of Candace K. “Dacie” Moses, who contributed so much to the lives of Carleton students, this award is given each year to the senior or seniors who most exemplify the characteristics of Dacie Moses.

NOYES PRIZE

JULIAN BYRNE FLANAGAN

MARGARET YU-TONG HU

PARKER SCOTT JOHNSON

MARIAH GRACE LOEHR

DECLAN O. F. MILLER

The Noyes Prize was founded in 1908 by Daniel R. Noyes of St. Paul. Distinguished scholars are selected from a list of eligible members of the senior class based on grade point average.

THE REEVE PRIZE

JOELLA KATHERINE SHEARER

The Reeve Prize was established in 1881 in memory of Minnie A. Reeve of Minneapolis. Distinguished scholars are selected from a list of eligible members of the senior class based on grade point average.

JEAN SCHMIDT PRIZE

BIANCA ROSE LOTT

Established in 1973 in memory of Jean Schmidt '73, the prize is awarded each year to members of the graduating class who best exemplify Schmidt's enthusiasm for learning and love of people.

SECOND CENTURY STUDENT AWARD

ANNIYA ROCHE HARRIS
DILLON MYLES JOHNSON
ZAEDA JHOI NYAN PETER

YAINKAIN KADIJA FATIMA
TAYLOR-KAMARA
ALEXIS MICHELLE
CORDERO WALLACE

This award was established to honor Carleton students who have made an outstanding contribution to the College through significant service to others. The award is not intended to recognize academic or political success, but rather to honor service on or off campus that enriches and strengthens the institution and the lives of its members.

STEWESIE SUSTAINABILITY AWARD

ZHIHONG ZHANG

The Stewsie Sustainability Award is given to Carleton students whose characters reflect the determination, conviction, and innovation of the lifelong service of Dresden Blake Stewart, better known as “Stewsie.” Concluding a varied career as superintendent of grounds, Stewsie served the College for more than 50 years, eventually receiving the title “landscape architect.” Never found without a shovel in hand, he was dedicated to improving his community’s environment and keeping strong his deep convictions about preserving the natural order of the local habitat.

STIMSON PRIZE

VIVIAN CHUKWUDUMEBI AGUGO

ADRIÁN A. GONZÁLEZ

This prize was founded in 1873 by Carleton Trustee Reverend Henry A. Stimson to encourage public speech. It is awarded to the student who contributes most to the quality of debate or public speaking at the College.

FRANK E. STINCHFIELD PRIZE

ALEX MICHAEL MCKEEVER

This prize is named for Dr. Frank E. Stinchfield '32, H '60. It was established at his request, but after his death, through the Margaret and Frank Stinchfield Foundation. The prize is awarded to academically outstanding members of the senior class.

SAMUEL STRAUSS PRIZE FOR HUMOROUS WRITING

FLORENCE ISABELLA BASILE

Endowed in 1982 by Robert S. Strauss '73 in memory of his father, this prize is awarded to recognize accomplished humorous writing.

TECHNOS INTERNATIONAL PRIZE

ERIN ELIZABETH MATTINGLY

Presented to a graduating senior for outstanding academic achievement and a commitment to furthering the cause of international understanding, this award is balanced by a similar award given by Carleton to a student at Technos College in Tokyo.

TECHNOS INTERNATIONAL WEEK FELLOWS

JOHN CARLOS ALVAREZ

DREW JOHN STARK

The Tanaka Ikueikai Educational Trust invites two students and a faculty member from select institutions in the United States, England, and New Zealand to participate in Technos International Week. The two-week program encourages cultural understanding between the program's guest participants and the students and faculty members of Technos College in Tokyo.

CARLETON TONI AWARD IN THE ARTS

FLORENCE ISABELLA BASILE

JOELLA KATHERINE SHEARER

LILLIAN HILAIRE GEIL

NATALIE REBECCA TATAR

ANNE GRACE HOOPER

This prize, established in 1996 in honor of Antoinette “Toni” Sostek, dance instructor at Carleton from 1971 to 1996, is awarded to juniors or seniors who embody the spirit of Sostek’s teachings through artistic expression. The following attributes summarize the people with that spirit: finds the fun in shared experience, understands that major challenges are overcome through small steps and small triumphs, exults in the joy of personal achievement, and does not let personal limitations or conventional wisdom discourage creative expression.

MARY WIESE ENDOWED PRIZE

KARLA APRIL CRUZ SANCHEZ

JUAN GARCIA REYES

Established in 1992 to honor the memory of Carleton employee and parent Maria “Mary” Eugenia Wiese, this prize honors Wiese’s respect for education, her profound love for students, and her understanding of the place of education in their futures. Qualities Wiese valued in others and that formed the core of her own character were cultural pride, kindness, perseverance, self-reliance, discipline, and respect and care for other people. This prize is awarded to graduating seniors who embody the above qualities and who have demonstrated perseverance in overcoming challenging circumstances.

DEPARTMENTAL AND PROGRAM AWARDS, HONORS, AND PRIZES

RAJALETCHEMY BALASINGAM GENDER, WOMEN'S & SEXUALITY STUDIES PRIZE

POLLY ANIKI MURRAY

The Rajaletchemy Balasingam Gender, Women's & Sexuality Studies Prize was established in 2018 by Dashini Jeyathurai '08 to honor a student in a Gender, Women's & Sexuality Studies course who submits a superlative piece of academic writing. She named the prize after the first feminist in her life, her mother Rajaletchemy Balasingam.

JOHN K. BARE PRIZE IN PSYCHOLOGY

ALAN HARRISON JAMES

Established in 1983, this prize was created to honor Professor John Bare for his many contributions to his students, to Carleton's Department of Psychology, and to teaching in American psychology more generally. The prize, endowed by his students, colleagues, friends, and family, is awarded to members of the senior class who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in the study of psychology.

CHARLES CARLIN PRIZE IN CHEMISTRY

ELEANOR JEAN HEBARD

This prize was established in 2011 by Charles H. Carlin, Charles "Jim" and Marjorie Kade Professor of the Sciences, emeritus. The prize honors senior chemistry majors whose enjoyment of chemistry and gracious good humor has inspired and assisted others in the field.

MIKE CASPER AWARD

JONAH GIDEON BARER

MEGAN ERICA ROESLER

The Barry M. “Mike” Casper Award was established in 2011 by the environmental studies (ENTS) program to honor the memory of Mike Casper, professor of physics from 1966 to 2003 and long-time cornerstone of the environmental studies program at Carleton. This prize honors the graduating ENTS majors who best personify Professor Casper’s commitment to superior academic achievement and his energy and leadership in support of understanding and protecting the environment.

JEWELL M. EKLUND PRIZE IN PHILOSOPHY

ERIC JONATHAN LAIL

The Jewell M. Eklund Prize in Philosophy was established in 2022 and honors the memory of Jewell, grandmother of Katherine M. Koza ’16 (philosophy major) and Nicholas J. Eklund ’20 (University of Chicago, public policy major). Jewell lived for others, and the gift to Carleton is in keeping with her generous heart. She highly valued education, and through hard work, frugality, and self-sacrifice, she helped her children’s education dreams come true. She would be thrilled to know that the accomplishments of philosophy majors at Carleton and the invaluable work of the philosophy department will be recognized and rewarded in her name long into the future. This award will go to one or more students for whom all the following conditions apply: (1) they are majoring in philosophy, (2) they are in their senior year, and (3) they have achieved academic excellence.

ROY O. ELVETON PRIZE IN COGNITIVE SCIENCE AND PHILOSOPHY

NATIV EREZ BERKOVITZ-RAVE

ERIC JONATHAN LAIL

The prize was established in 2014 in commemoration of the retirement of Roy Elveton, the Maxine H. and Winston R. Wallin Professor of Philosophy and Cognitive Science, emeritus. Roy joined the faculty in 1968 and was instrumental in founding the interdisciplinary program in cognitive science at Carleton. The Roy Elveton Prize honors two senior students a year: the cognitive science student and philosophy student judged to excel in their senior integrative exercise (comps).

FERLEN, RINGLIEN, ZACH ENDOWED PRIZE

YUNAN LIU

The Ferlen, Ringlien, Zach Endowed Prize Fund honors graduating physics majors who have demonstrated the ability to construct complicated scientific instruments and then use them in real applications.

WINFIELD A. FOREMAN JR. '37 ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE IN ECONOMICS

JACKSON JOSEPH CRONIN RANKIN

This scholarship was created in 2005 by Mr. Foreman's wife, Alice, in honor of her husband's 90th birthday. Winfield A. Foreman Jr. graduated summa cum laude from Carleton in 1937 with a degree in economics. He became involved in a number of business enterprises including Foreman & Clark, a clothing company founded by his father, and later became vice president at John Wanamaker, a department store in Philadelphia. During WWII, Mr. Foreman served in the Navy and ended his military career as a Lieutenant Senior Grade. The Winfield A. Foreman Jr. '37 Endowed Scholarship for Academic Excellence is awarded to economics majors who are U.S. citizens and demonstrate great academic promise. The scholarship encourages students to pursue community-inspired business and service, as modeled by Winfield A. Foreman Jr.

STEVEN P. GALOVICH PRIZE IN MATHEMATICS

NATHANIEL CHENG

EMMY COYLE

PABLO NICOLAS CHRISTOFFERSON

SHIQI SUNNY SUN

This prize was established in 2009 by the generosity of alumni and friends to honor the memory of Steve Galovich, professor of mathematics from 1974 to 1994. The prize honors graduating mathematics majors who best reflect Professor Galovich's enthusiasm for and love of mathematics, zestful joy in life, sense of humor, and compassion for others.

TALIA GOLDBERG '12 AWARD IN STUDIO ART

OLIVER PHILIP BLACK-JOHNSTON

ABDUL RAHIM HAMID

ANNA LAI JUN LARSON-CHENG

This award was established in 2014 to honor the memory of Talia Goldenberg '12. Talia exhibited delight in the world, compassion for others, and courage and tenacity in facing life's challenges. This award recognizes senior studio art majors with extraordinary promise who also embody Talia's spirit of community and humaneness and have completed their comprehensive exercise. Selections are made by the art department.

ADA M. HARRISON PRIZE IN ECONOMICS

KAMRAN UDDIN AHMED

CAMERON MCCOY DOLBOW

ZHENGYANG GUAN

This prize recognizes the outstanding academic achievements of graduating economics majors for coursework and independent study in the field of economics at Carleton. It publicly honors Professor Ada M. Harrison and was established in 1978 by her former students, friends, and colleagues at the time of her retirement from 30 years of distinguished service to Carleton.

HONORS IN MUSIC PERFORMANCE

BRYCE HARRISON BERNSTEIN

LILIAN SHADOWENS BURROWS

MAX KINGSTON

JOSHUA YUN-MING LEE

DANIEL J. NYKAMP

HUNTINGTON POETRY PRIZE

LILLIAN COLETTE HUGHES

Endowed in memory of George Huntington, poet, novelist, and professor of logic, rhetoric, and elocution at Carleton from 1879 to 1906, this prize recognizes distinguished work in poetry.

IAN KRAABEL '85 MEMORIAL PRIZE

ANDRA HAZEL BROWN

WILLIAM MICHAEL CLAUSMAN

Established in 1987 by the classmates and friends of Ian Kraabel '85, who died in an avalanche on Mount Baker in the summer of 1986, this award honors Kraabel's unusual intensity, originality, and athletic ability. The prize is awarded each year by the history department to a major who best reflects Kraabel's personal qualities and his desire to pursue knowledge and understanding.

JERRY MOHRIG PRIZE IN CHEMISTRY

CLAIRE KYUNGMI LEE-ZACHEIS

This prize was established in 2006 by friends and students of Jerry R. Mohrig, professor of chemistry from 1967 to 2003, in honor of his many contributions to Carleton. The award recognizes outstanding senior chemistry majors who have excelled in the study of chemistry and undergraduate scientific research. The award recognizes two hallmarks of excellence: achievement in formal academic coursework and success in a significant research experience.

EDWARD “TED” MULLIN MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP IN HISTORY

JESSE COGAN

ELLA RUTH PARKE

The Edward “Ted” Mullin Fellowship in History was established in memory of Ted, who lost his life to cancer in September 2006 while he was a student at Carleton. The fellowship is awarded to junior history majors to support research opportunities in the field of history that enhance a student’s academic or broader learning journey. The fellowship recipients, selected by the history department, exemplify Ted’s love of history, academic excellence, selflessness, courage, and tenacity.

DAVID POLLATSEK ’96 PRIZE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

BRYCE HARRISON BERNSTEIN

HENRY WILLIAM BURKHARDT

ABDUL RAHIM HAMID

JANE DEE HORWITZ PARSON

CHLOE KATE SIMANEK

CHANGWOO YU

This prize, established in 2013 by family and friends of David Pollatsek ’96, is awarded each year to computer science majors who best reflect David’s special strengths: his intellectual curiosity, his creativity, his imaginative programming, his love of art, and his flair for design.

RACHEL ROSENFELD '70 PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY

XI WANG

This prize was established in 2011 in memory of Rachel A. Rosenfeld '70, professor of sociology at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. The prize is awarded each spring by the Department of Sociology and Anthropology to seniors who exhibit the most promise in making professional contributions in the areas of sociology or anthropology, a high level of intellectual curiosity, courage in the face of challenges, devotion to community, and enthusiasm for making connections between social theory and practice.

SY SCHUSTER PRIZE FOR LEADERSHIP IN DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

REVATHI MANDAVA

CLARA A. MCGEE

CLAIRE BARBARA SAUNDERS

NATALIE REBECCA TATAR

Established in 2021, this prize honors Sy Schuster, William H. Laird Professor of Mathematics and the Liberal Arts, emeritus, by recognizing students whose leadership works to help Carleton's mathematics and statistics community reflect the broad diversity of all people. This award will go to one or more students who show leadership promoting diversity along racial, ethnic, disability, religious, sexual orientation, gender, socio-economic, and all its other dimensions.

BARDWELL SMITH PRIZE FOR EXCELLENCE IN THE STUDY OF RELIGION

ALEK MORLING POCHAN

IRIS OLWEN STEINER-MANNING

Established in 2006 on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of Carleton's religion department, this prize celebrates the leadership and career of Bardwell L. Smith, the John W. Nason Professor of Religion and Asian Studies, emeritus. The award honors Professor Smith's intellectual legacy of cross-cultural study and commitment to lifelong learning. The prize is awarded by the religion department to students who exhibit a passion for the life of the mind, a willingness to take intellectual risks, and a desire to grow and change as young scholars.

ELLEN ROGERS STEIF '77 MEMORIAL AWARD

RILEY MAE GIBSON

SOPHIA ELISE ISMAIL

Established by the family and friends of Ellen Steif '77, who died in the fall of 1979, this award honors Steif's interest in history and her personal courage in the face of death during a long and painful illness. The prize is awarded each year by the history department to history majors who best reflect Steif's personal qualities and academic achievements.

DUNCAN STEWART FELLOWS

AMELIA ALLISON CARSON

ZIJUN WAN

Each spring, the geology department selects Duncan Stewart Fellows from the junior and senior classes. This fellowship was established in 1976 by Daniel Gainey '49 in honor of Duncan Stewart, professor of geology at Carleton for nearly 25 years. The principal criteria for selection are excellence in scholarship, a high level of intellectual curiosity, potential for scientific growth, a demonstrated ability to work independently, and involvement in department activities.

ANN GOODSON WEINER PRIZE IN THEATER AND DANCE

KAELYN ELISABETH ROTHE

JOELLA KATHERINE SHEARER

This prize was established in 2004 by Carl and Ruth Weiner and is also supported annually by Robert Weiner to honor Ann Goodson Weiner, who is Carl and Robert Weiner's mother and Ruth Weiner's mother-in-law. This prize is awarded annually to students who, in the judgment of the section leaders of the theater and dance department, have contributed the most significant performance in theater or dance. The purpose of the prize is to honor Ann Goodson Weiner and recognize the hard work and dedication involved in creating a truly inspirational performance.

We stand on the homelands of the Wahpekute and Mdewakanton bands of the Dakota Nation. We honor with gratitude the people who have stewarded the land throughout the generations and their ongoing contributions to this region. We acknowledge the ongoing injustices that we have committed against the Dakota Nation, and we wish to interrupt this legacy, beginning with acts of healing and honest storytelling.
