Fellowship Opportunities at the Newberry Library for ACM Faculty

The Newberry Library is now accepting fellowship applications for the 2024-25 academic year!

Newberry Library Fellowships provide support to researchers who wish to use our collection. We promise you intriguing and often rare materials; a lively, interdisciplinary community of researchers; individual consultations on your research with staff curators, librarians, and other scholars; and an array of both scholarly and public programs.

The Newberry Library Long-Term Residential Fellowships are available to postdoctoral scholars for 4 to 9 months with a stipend of $5,000 per month. This fellowship is open to all fields of study. Awardees may combine their Newberry fellowship award with sabbatical funding or other stipendiary support. Applicants must hold a PhD by the November 1st deadline.

The Newberry Library-Associated Colleges of the Midwest (ACM) Short-Term Fellowship is available to either tenure-track or tenured faculty members from ACM-member institutions who demonstrate a specific need for the Newberry’s collection. This fellowship is open to all fields of study with a stipend of $3,000 for one month in residence. Newberry-ACM Fellowships are open to all qualified candidates and encourages applications from individuals from underrepresented groups in the professoriate.
