Dear Classmate,

The above quote is so true. It’s what keeps many of us coming back to Reunion. Since we graduated 45 (!???) years ago, our lives have taken many paths in careers, locations, and interests. It’s a treat to reconnect with old friends and acquaintances and to find out about everyone’s interesting careers, hobbies, activities, families, accomplishments, and travels. Your Class of 1977 Reunion Committee hopes that you will come to campus (yes, in person – at this point in time) so we can compare notes on our lives and how Carleton shaped them.

Well share FUN, interactive activities:

- A Grand Night – revamped! In the interest of having more social time, this evening will start with a social hour, buffet meal, and a mixer for dessert. There will be no talent show.
- A 77 listening circle for BIPOC classmates to share their Carleton experiences.
- Classmate Carlos Gonzales’ presentation on “Traditional American Indian Medicine Concepts on Wellness and Healing.”
- Panel on Spirituality in Our Lives led by several of our classmates.
- Yoga session by Holly Slocum and others.

We are also considering a service project to benefit current students or the larger Northfield community.

You’ll want to participate in the many other Alumni College lectures and panels, exhibits, tours (new science building, for one), department receptions, book signings, musical performances, dancing to live bands, and the ever-popular and humbling Parade of Classes.

We are hoping to have an online Reunion Biobook, so even if you can’t attend in person, you can share about yourself and read up on what your friends have been doing. Stay tuned for how to participate.

Watch for updates on our Carleton class webpage (go.carleton.edu/1977) and our Facebook page (facebook.com/Carleton77) for postings and old photos.

On behalf of the whole committee, we hope to see you in June of 2022 for lots of fun and fellowship. Mark your calendars and book your travel now for June 16-19.

Regards to all,
Lee Ann Landstrom

P.S. Don’t forget to give your AAF gift to support our current students and staff.
