The Gathering returns to campus

On behalf of OIL, the Division of Student Life, and tons of current students alike. A number of students told me about the stories they heard, the perspective of the residents who created the murals and the complex emotions that led to their powerful art.

Celebrating Diwali

On Saturday, October 22 Carleton commemorated Diwali, the Hindu festival of light, with a candlelight procession through campus and a dance perfomance. Carleton’s Multicultural Alumni Network hosted the event, and it was a great opportunity to learn about Diwali and its significance, as well as the ways in which Carleton celebrates the diversity of its students and alumni.

The Chinese Music Ensemble and Global Music Ensemble will perform at 3:00 - 4:30 p.m. in Kracum Performance Hall. The Chinese Music Ensemble will present a variety of classical, traditional, folk and popular music, while the Global Music Ensemble will feature colorful dances. For more information, visit the Chinese Music Ensemble webpage or Global Music Ensemble homepage.

MCAN Fellows Present at Undergraduate Research and Internship Symposium

On October 14, Carleton hosted its annual Research and Internship Symposium. This year, more than 240 students shared their work in internships and on research projects from the past 12 months. The symposium is an opportunity for students to showcase their work across various disciplines. The weekend proved to be a restorative and inspiring experience for alumni and students, representing a span of 60 years of Carleton classes and growth.

Rest, Reconciliation, and Revival

Join us as we celebrate the life of Fred Easter, who coached at Carleton from 1968 to 1975 and taught courses in English. Fred began his career at Carleton in 1968 and served in many capacities, including Assistant Director of Admissions. Fred died after a long battle with cancer. Fred’s work at Carleton was dedicated to the College’s community and the students who made it so special.
