The Perlman Teaching Museum is located in the Weitz Center for Creativity at Third and College Streets in Northfield. For more information: 507-222-4342 or go.carleton.edu/museum

Museum Hours
Monday-Wednesday: 11 a.m.–6 p.m.
Thursday-Friday: 11 a.m.–9 p.m.
Saturday-Sunday: noon–4 p.m.

Exhibition Opening This Thursday, 7-9pm
This Thursday, May 12, 7-9pm, you are invited to a gallery reception celebrating the opening of two exhibitions: the 2022 Senior Art Show and Imagined Futures, Forgotten Pasts, a student-curated display focusing on the history of Carleton’s architecture and campus design. Light snacks and refreshments will be available in the Weitz Commons. Come meet the graduating artists and student-curators, and help us celebrate all the hard work which has gone into these two outstanding exhibitions!

Imagined Futures, Forgotten Pasts Events
To accompany the Imagined Futures, Forgotten Pasts exhibition, Carleton students have organized a busy program of gallery talks and campus tours!

Drop-in for an Upcoming Gallery Talk
Wednesday May 18, 4:30 - 5:15pm
Engaging with the Landscape: The Carleton Farm, Arboretum and May Fete
Friday May 20, 4:00-4:45pm
Pandemic Strikes! Carleton’s Early Student Health Services and the 1918 Pandemic

Campus Walking Tours
Choose from one of three tours, and book your free place below. If you would like to arrange a tour specifically for a class or other group, please fill out this request form and a member of the museum staff will be in touch.

Wednesday, May 11, 4:00-5:30pm
His and Hers: Gender Norms and Campus Design at Carleton
Reserve a space on the May 11 tour

Saturday, May 21, 1:00-2:30pm
Faced with Change: WWII and Modernization Come To Carleton
Reserve a space on the May 21 tour

Wednesday, May 25, 4:00-5:30pm
The Early History of Carleton
Reserve a space on the May 25 tour

Imagined Futures, Forgotten Pasts Website
Student-curators of the Imagined Futures, Forgotten Pasts exhibition and student workers at the Perlman Teaching Museum have been hard at work building their own website especially for the exhibition! Browse a chronological timeline detailing structures from 1866 to the present day, and explore thematic stories about the history of Carleton College at campushistory.sites.carleton.edu.

Connect with us online on Instagram & Facebook

Perlman Teaching Museum at Carleton College
The Perlman Teaching Museum is located in the Weitz Center for Creativity. More information and College Hours in Northfield.
For more information: 507-222-4342 or go.carleton.edu/museum

Museum Hours
Monday-Wednesday: 11 a.m.–6 p.m.
Thursday-Friday: 11 a.m.–9 p.m.
Saturday-Sunday: noon–6 p.m.