County COVID-19 case data, please visit Carleton's coronavirus dashboard. For current testing options and additional information on COVID-19 updates, please see the COVID-19 campus updates tab.

Useful Links
- County COVID-19 case data
- Carleton's coronavirus dashboard
- Current testing options
- Additional information on COVID-19 updates

Career building
- Counting partnerships for meaningful experiences
- Partnering with organizations to offer meaningful experiences
- Career Center also curates experiential learning opportunities for students. We selectively partner with organizations to offer meaningful experiences
- In addition to supporting your student's career success from a developmental perspective, the Career Center also curates experiential learning opportunities
- Career Center also curates experiential learning opportunities
- In addition to supporting your student's career success from a developmental perspective, the Career Center also curates experiential learning opportunities
- Career Center also curates experiential learning opportunities

Supporting Students
- Carleton Cupboard will be open for Spring Break
- The Carleton Cupboard is a program aimed at reducing the impact of food insecurity on students. If you are interested in contributing to the Cupboard, you can find the donation form online.
- The Carleton Cupboard is a program aimed at reducing the impact of food insecurity on students. If you are interested in contributing to the Cupboard, you can find the donation form online.
- The Carleton Cupboard is a program aimed at reducing the impact of food insecurity on students. If you are interested in contributing to the Cupboard, you can find the donation form online.
- The Carleton Cupboard is a program aimed at reducing the impact of food insecurity on students. If you are interested in contributing to the Cupboard, you can find the donation form online.
- The Carleton Cupboard is a program aimed at reducing the impact of food insecurity on students. If you are interested in contributing to the Cupboard, you can find the donation form online.

Upcoming events
- Comprehensive Testing: "The New Wave of Peak Performance"
  - February 23
  - Comprehensive Testing: "The New Wave of Peak Performance"
  - February 23
  - Comprehensive Testing: "The New Wave of Peak Performance"
  - February 23
  - Comprehensive Testing: "The New Wave of Peak Performance"
  - February 23

Student Stories
- Georgie Mukeshimana '25
- A student from rural areas could come together in the community to learn skills to support their families and break the chain of poverty. Hear more about Georgie's experiences and her perspective on living at Carleton.
- A student from rural areas could come together in the community to learn skills to support their families and break the chain of poverty. Hear more about Georgie's experiences and her perspective on living at Carleton.
- A student from rural areas could come together in the community to learn skills to support their families and break the chain of poverty. Hear more about Georgie's experiences and her perspective on living at Carleton.
- A student from rural areas could come together in the community to learn skills to support their families and break the chain of poverty. Hear more about Georgie's experiences and her perspective on living at Carleton.
- A student from rural areas could come together in the community to learn skills to support their families and break the chain of poverty. Hear more about Georgie's experiences and her perspective on living at Carleton.

Useful Links
- County COVID-19 case data
- Carleton's coronavirus dashboard
- Current testing options
- Additional information on COVID-19 updates

Students Stories
- Georgie Mukeshimana '25
- The Center" in Rwanda. In high school, Georgie's passion for helping young mothers in her native Rwanda led to the creation of an adult education program where women could come together in the community to learn skills to support their families. Her passion for helping young mothers in her native Rwanda led to the creation of an adult education program where women could come together in the community to learn skills to support their families. Her passion for helping young mothers in her native Rwanda led to the creation of an adult education program where women could come together in the community to learn skills to support their families. Her passion for helping young mothers in her native Rwanda led to the creation of an adult education program where women could come together in the community to learn skills to support their families. Her passion for helping young mothers in her native Rwanda led to the creation of an adult education program where women could come together in the community to learn skills to support their families.