Carleton News

For COVID-19 resources, including the COVID-19 Update dashboard and the Minnesota Department of Health, and COVID-19 dashboard, visit Carleton's Rice County COVID-19 case data, please share this email.

From your kitchen to ours, contribute items by mail on our website. Donors can select what they would like to purchase for the Wardrobe and it will be mailed directly to our location. For those who would like to purchase online, an Amazon Wishlist is available.

The Wardrobe will be open from October 24-26, once again offering the Winter Wardrobe to the entire student body. It will be open to those who have the greatest financial need but is available to all. It focuses on Carleton students with the greatest need for winter clothing and accessories free of charge. The Wardrobe will have new and gently used winter clothing, including:

- Winter coats
- Hats and earmuffs
- Winter boots
- Gloves and mittens
- Scarves

Memorialize the Movement: Minneapolis Protest Murals exhibition and talk by Leesa Kelly

While you're on campus for Family Weekend, we hope you'll check out the Minneapolis Protest Murals exhibition and talk by Leesa Kelly. Held annually, this year's event will feature more than 20 murals created by members of the Carleton community. Admission is free. The exhibition will run from October 13 to 15.

Career Building

You're invited to the 2022 Undergraduate Internship Symposium. The symposium will feature talks from Carleton students who conducted research or interned at locations around the world this past summer. Students who received funding from the Career Development Office will also present. The symposium will be held on October 24-26.

Supporting Students

The Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra performs "The Passion of江南" on October 14. The performance will feature guest soloist Sir James Franklin and will be held at the Orpheum Theater in downtown Saint Paul.

Virtual Family Weekend events

If you're not able to come to campus this weekend, we also have a few ways that you may want to see the family weekend virtually, including Convocation with President Bruce Rastetter on October 13.

Virtual tour of the campus in Spanish: "Visit the campus"

The fifth Multicultural Alumni Network Gathering (Sept. 30-Oct. 2) brought together alumni from around the world to share their experiences, and what they learned about themselves and the world this past summer. Students who received funding from the Career Development Office will also present. The symposium will be held on October 24-26.

Campus News

For the latest on campus news, including the latest Carleton's Student Organic Farm news, visit our website.

Knowledge, which Carleton won in a giant victory over Mac recently, is known as the Star Tribune's "MIAC athlete of the week".

Donors can select what they would like to purchase for the Wardrobe and it will be mailed directly to our location. For those who would like to purchase online, an Amazon Wishlist is available.

The Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra performs "The Passion of江南" on October 14. The performance will feature guest soloist Sir James Franklin and will be held at the Orpheum Theater in downtown Saint Paul.

Virtual Family Weekend events

If you're not able to come to campus this weekend, we also have a few ways that you may want to see the family weekend virtually, including Convocation with President Bruce Rastetter on October 13.

Virtual tour of the campus in Spanish: "Visit the campus"

The fifth Multicultural Alumni Network Gathering (Sept. 30-Oct. 2) brought together alumni from around the world to share their experiences, and what they learned about themselves and the world this past summer. Students who received funding from the Career Development Office will also present. The symposium will be held on October 24-26.

Campus News

For the latest on campus news, including the latest Carleton's Student Organic Farm news, visit our website.

Knowledge, which Carleton won in a giant victory over Mac recently, is known as the Star Tribune's "MIAC athlete of the week".

Donors can select what they would like to purchase for the Wardrobe and it will be mailed directly to our location. For those who would like to purchase online, an Amazon Wishlist is available.

The Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra performs "The Passion of江南" on October 14. The performance will feature guest soloist Sir James Franklin and will be held at the Orpheum Theater in downtown Saint Paul.

Virtual Family Weekend events

If you're not able to come to campus this weekend, we also have a few ways that you may want to see the family weekend virtually, including Convocation with President Bruce Rastetter on October 13.

Virtual tour of the campus in Spanish: "Visit the campus"

The fifth Multicultural Alumni Network Gathering (Sept. 30-Oct. 2) brought together alumni from around the world to share their experiences, and what they learned about themselves and the world this past summer. Students who received funding from the Career Development Office will also present. The symposium will be held on October 24-26.