Here's your news for June from on and off campus.

Campus news

President 2023

Working from the President.

Andrews at Work: An interview with President Byerly. In this latest edition, President Alison Byerly discusses her vision for Carleton, the impact of the recent campus events, and the role of the president in creating a sense of belonging.

Carleton named to the Peace Corps' highest producer list. The Peace Corps announced its rankings, and Carleton named second-highest producer of Peace Corps volunteers among colleges and universities that have produced Peace Corps volunteers in the last decade.

The combined MCAN and OAC are held the first Friday of every month, if you want to get involved in the observatory, check the Goodsell Observatory website for times and the full story of the observatory.

Farewells site for the class of 2025. The class of 2025 will be leaving Carleton soon, and the Farewells site will give them a chance to share their experiences with future students.

The Goodsell Open House is held at the observatory on June 7, In person: Friday, June 7. In this event, you can learn more about the observatory and the research being conducted there.

In person: Thursday, June 20 to Saturday, June 22. Carleton alumni on a fifteen-day trip to the Grand Canyon. Join faculty leader Chloé Fandel and other alumni for an adventure through one of the true wonders of nature. Scheduled for July 22 through August 3, the trip will take you through the heart of the Grand Canyon.

Upcoming events

Class of 2024 Commencement. The ceremony will take place outdoors on the Laird Stadium on June 5. Make your gift at go.carleton.edu/June30.

Mypamiroda Neurodiversity Endowed Fund. O'Connor '74 has established the Mypamiroda Neurodiversity Endowed Fund dedicated to neurodiversity and recognizing the full neurodiversity of the Carleton community.

The Peace Corps announced its rankings of Peace Corps volunteers, Carleton named second-highest producer of Peace Corps volunteers among colleges and universities that have produced Peace Corps volunteers in the last decade.

The Peace Corps announced its rankings of Peace Corps volunteers, Carleton named second-highest producer of Peace Corps volunteers among colleges and universities that have produced Peace Corps volunteers in the last decade.

"Frequent communication with the Carleton community is one of President Alison Byerly's top priorities. Her messages, public remarks, and priorities. Her messages, public remarks, and..."

Other Ways to Connect

Hearing from the President. President Alison Byerly sends her messages, public remarks, and priorities. Her messages, public remarks, and...

Join faculty leader Chloé Fandel and Carleton alumni on a fifteen-day trip to the Grand Canyon. The trip will take you through the heart of the Grand Canyon. Scheduled for July 22 through August 3, the trip will give you a chance to learn more about the observatory and the research being conducted there.